

UNC Professional Schools in the Middle East

UNC Gillings School of Global Public Health

Global Health Project in the United Arab Emirates

Collaboration with the Environmental Agency, Abu Dhabi, to lead an assessment of health risks due to environmental factors in the country. More information here.

<http://www.sph.unc.edu/globalhealth/researchmap/world/uae.html>

UNC Kenan-Flagler Business School

Spring Break Immersion in Dubai and Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates

Program designed for undergraduates to experience how business is conducted internationally. Includes company visits, meetings with NGOs or government agencies, and cultural excursions. More information here:

<http://www.kenan-flagler.unc.edu/programs/mba/global-programs/global-immersion-electives>

UNC School of Information and Library Science

Educating Librarians in the Middle East: Building Bridges for the 21st Century (ELIME-21)

In collaboration with Akhawayn University in Morocco. A federally-funded project for training Middle East librarians. The first three doctoral students are expected to start in Fall, 2011. More information here <http://elime.web.unc.edu/about/>